All Along the Watchtower

||: Bm / A / | G / / A :||

Verse 1 "There must be some way out of here!"
Cried the Joker to the Thief.
"There's too much confusion,
I can't get no relief.
Businessmen they drink their wine.
Plowmen dig my earth.
None of them along the line
Know what any of it is worth."

Lead

Verse 2 "No reason to get excited,"
The Thief he kindly spoke.
"There are many here among us
Who feel that life is but a joke.
But you and I, we've been through that.
And this is not our fate.
So let us not talk falsely now,
The hour is getting late."

Lead

Verse 3 All along the watchtower,
Princess kept the view.
While all the women came and went,
Barefoot servants too.
Outside in the distance,
A wild rat did howl.
Two riders were approaching,
The wind began to howl.

Half a mile from the county fair and the rain keep pourin' down

And it stoned me to my soul. Stoned me just like Jelly Roll and it stoned me.
And it stoned me to my soul. Stoned me just like goin' home and it stoned me.

Verse 2 Then the rain let up and the sun came up and we were gettin' dry
Almost let a pick-up truck nearly pass us by
So we jumped right in and the driver grinned And he dropped us up the road.
We looked at the swim and we jumped right in not to mention fishing poles

Black Throated Wind

Verse 1

|| E /// | F#m /// | D / A / | E /// :||

You're bringing me down, I'm running around, blind by the lights of the interstate cars,
Passing me by, the busses and the semis, plunging like stones from a slingshot from mars.

|| A /// | D >>> | Bm /// | E /// :||

But I'm here on the road, bound to the load, that I picked up in ten thousand cafes and bars.
Alone with the rush of the drivers that won't pick me up,
the highway, the moon, and clouds & the stars.

Black throated wind, keeps on pourin' in, with it's words of a life where nothing is new,

|⁴ D / C#m A |⁴ E / A / |⁴ G / D / |⁴ A / / / | % |

Ah, mother American night, I pass from the light, Ah, I'm drownin' in you.

Verse 2

I left St. Louie, city of blues, in the midst of a storm I'd rather forget.
I tried to pretend it came to an end, cause you weren't the women I once thought I'd met.

But I can't deny, times have gone by, well I never had doubts or thoughts of regret,
And I was a man when all this began, who wouldn't think twice about being there yet.

Black throated wind, whisper in sin, and speaking on life that passes like dew.
It's forced me to see you've done better by me, better by me that I've done by you.

Verse 3

Now what's to be found by racing around, you carry your pain wherever you go,
Full of blues, and tryin' to lose, you ain't gonna learn what you don't wanna know.

So I give you my eyes and all of their lies, please help them to learn as well as to see.
Capture a glance, and make it dance, cause looking at you is looking at me.

Black throated wind, keeps on pourin' in, with it's words of a life that could almost be true,
Ah, mother American night, here comes a light. I'm turning around, that's what I'm gonna do.
Going back home that's what I'm gonna do. I'm turning around, that's what I'm gonna do.
Going back home that's what I'm gonna do. You've done better by me than I've done by you.

Verse 1 He was just a blue-eyed Boston Boy, his voice it glowed with pain.
 I know you'll pity this Comrade's mind, but I'll write back again.
 But if you write back and I am left, you'd do this much for me.
 Mother you know must hear the news, so write to her tenderly.

Short Lead ||: D / | C / | % | G / :||

Verse 2 She was waiting at home like a patient Saint, her fond fair face paled and froze
 Her heart will be broken when I am gone, I'll see her soon I know.
 Just then the order came to charge, for an instant my hand touched death.
 They said, "He don't wait" and they wrote, "so brave he pulled his men."

Long Lead ||: D / | C / | % | G / :||

Verse 3 Straight was the course to the top of the hill, the Rebels they shot and shelled.
 Plowed furrows of death through the toiling rain and guarded them as they fell.
 Then soon came a horrible dying scream from the heights they could not gain.
 And those that do, men lift your spears and drive them back again.

Short Lead ||: D / | C / | % | G / :||

Verse 4 But among the dead that was left on the hill was the boy with the curly hair.
 The tall dark man that rode by his side laid dead beside him there
 There's no one to write to the blue-eyed girl, the words her lover had said.
 Mother, you know, awaits the news she'll only know he's dead

Verse 1 I want to sing to my sisters and my brothers, "Keep the Faith"
For when the storm flies and the wind blows, Gotta go on at a steady pace
When the battle is fought and the victory is won
We can all shout together we have overcome
We'll talk to the Father and the Son When we make it to the Promised Land

Chorus Walk together little children, we don't ever have to worry
Through this world of trouble, we got to love one another
Take your fellow man by his hand, try to help him to understand
We can all live together forever and ever When we make it to the Promised Land.

Verse 2 Our Bible reads, "Thou shall not be afraid"
Of the terror by night or the arrow which flies by day
No form of pestilence, walketh in the darkness
It's the old form of destruction, waiteth in the new day hour.

Chorus Walk together little children, we don't ever have to worry
Through this world of trouble, we got to love one another
Take your fellow man by his hand, try to help him to understand
We can all live together forever and ever When we make it to the Promised Land.

Verse 1 Maybe you collect or maybe you pay. Still got to work that eight-hour day
Whether you like that job or not,
You'd better keep it on ice while you're lining up your long shot
Which is to say, hey hey, keep yer day job Don't give it away,
Keep yer day job, whatever they say. Keep yer day job 'till your night job pays.

Verse 2 Steady boys starting that eight day hour. Never underrate that paycheck power
By now you know that the face on your dollar
Got a thumb on its nose and a hand on your collar
With a chance to say, hey hey, keep yer day job Don't give it away
Keep yer day job, whatever they say. Keep yer day job 'till your night job pays.

Desolation Row

Verse 1 || E /// | % | A /// | E /// | B /// | % | A /// | E /// :||
| A /// | % | E / B / | A /// | E /// | B /// | A /// | E /// | % |

They're selling postcards of the hanging, They're painting the passports brown
The beauty parlor is filled with sailors, The circus is in town.
Here comes the blind commissioner, They've got him in a trance.
One hand is tied to the tight-rope walker, The other is in his pants
And the riot squad they're restless, they need somewhere to go
As Lady and I look out tonight, from Desolation Row.

Verse 2 Cinderella, she seems so easy It takes one to know one, she smiles
And puts her hands in her back pockets Bette Davis style
And in comes Romeo, he's moaning You Belong to Me I Believe
And someone says, You're in the wrong place, my friend, You Better leave
And the only sound that's left, after the ambulances go
Is Cinderella sweeping up on Desolation Row

Verse 3 Now the moon is almost hidden, the stars are beginning to hide
The fortune telling lady, has even taken all her things inside
All except for Cain and Abel and the hunchback of Notre Dame
Everybody is making love or else expecting rain
And the Good Samaritan he's dressing, he's getting ready for the show
He's going to the carnival tonight on Desolation Row

Verse 4 Now Ophelia, she's neath the window for her I feel so afraid
On her twenty-second birthday she already is an old maid
To her, death is quite romantic she wears an iron vest
Her profession's her religion her sin is her lifelessness
And though her eyes are fixed upon Noah's great rainbow
She spend her time peeking into Desolation Row

Verse 5 Einstein disguised as Robin Hood with his memories in a trunk
Passed this way an hour ago with his friend, a jealous monk
He looked so immaculately frightful as he bummed a cigarette
As he went off sniffing drainpipes and reciting the alphabet
Now you would not think to look at him but he was famous long ago
For playing the electric violin on Desolation Row

Verse 6 Dr. Filth, he keeps his world inside of a leather cup
But all his sexless patients they're trying to blow it up
Now his nurse, some local loser she's in charge of the cyanide hole
And she also keeps the cards that read "Have Mercy on His Soul"
They all play on the penny whistles you can hear then blow
If you lean your head out far enough from Desolation Row.

V1 G >>> | E /// | Am /// | D /// | G /// | E /// | Am /// | D /// | C / Cm / | D / G / |
 When I was just a little young boy, Papa said, "Son, you'll never get far."
 I'll tell you the reason if you want to know, "Cause child of mine, there really isn't very far to go"

V2 Well, baby, baby wants a gold diamond ring. Wants it more than most any old thing.
 Well, when I get those jelly-roll blues. Why, I'd go and get anything in this world for you

V3 Down to the jewelry store packing a gun, says, "Wrap it up. I think I'll take this one."
 A thousand dollars please, the jewelry man said. Dupree, he said, Ill pay this one off to you in lead.

Chorus | G /// | % | D /// | D⁷ /// | G /// | E /// | Am / D / | G /// |

 And it's no wonder your reason goes bad. Jelly-roll will drive you stone-mad.

 Dupree said, "Judge, you know that crossed my mind"
 Judge said, "fact, its gonna cost you your life!"
 Dupree said, "Judge, you know that seems to me to be about right."

V5 Well, baby, baby's gonna lose her sweet man. Dupree comes out with a losing hand.
 Baby's gonna weep it up for a while, then go on out
 And find another sweet man's gonna treat her with style.

V6 Judge said, "Son, I know your baby well, but that's a secret I can't never tell."
 Dupree said, Judge, well, its well understood and you got to admit that sweet, sweet jelly's so good

El Paso

Verse 1 = ||: D // | % | G // | % | A // | % | % | D // | % | % | % : ||

Out in the West Texas town of El Paso, I fell in love with a Mexican girl.
Nighttime would find me in Rose's Cantina, Music would play and Felina would whirl.
Black as the night were the eyes of Felina, Wicked and evil while casting a spell.
My love was strong for this Mexican maiden, I was in love, but in vain I could tell.

| G // | % | % | % | % | % | D // | % | % | % | % | % | % | % |
One night a wild young cowboy came in, wild as the West Texas wind_____

| D // | % | % | % | % | % | % | G // | % |
Dashing and daring, a drink he was sharing, With wicked Felina, the girl that I love.

| A // | % | D // | % | G // | % | A // | % | % | D // | % | % | % |
So In anger I challenged his right for the love of this maiden down went his hand for the gun that he wore

Verse 2

My challenge was answered, in less than a heartbeat, The handsome young stranger lay dead on the floor.
Just for a moment I stood there in silence, Shocked by the foul evil deed I had done.
Many thoughts ran through my mind as I stood there; I had but one chance and that was to run.

Out through the back door of Rose's I ran, Out where the horses were tied_____
I picked a good one; he looked like he could run, Up on his back and away I did ride.
Just as fast as I could from the West Texas town of El Paso, Out thru the badlands of New Mexico.

Verse 3

Back in El Paso my life would be worthless; Everything's gone in life nothing is left.
But it's been so long since I've seen the young maiden, My love is stronger than my fear of death.

Lead

I saddled up and away I did go, riding alone in the dark_____
Maybe tomorrow a bullet may find me, Tonight nothing's worse than this pain in my heart.
And as last here I am on the hill overlooking El Paso I can see Rose's Cantina below.

Verse 4

My love is strong and it pushes me onward, down off the hill to Felina I go.
Off to my right I see five mounted cowboys, Off to my left ride a dozen or more.
Shouting and shooting; I can't let them catch me, I've got to make it to Rose's back door.

Something is dreadfully wrong for I feel A deep burning pain in my side_____
It's getting harder to stay in the saddle, I'm getting weary, unable to ride.
But my love for Felina is strong and I rise where I've fallen; Though I am weary, I can't stop to rest.

Verse 5

I see the white puff of smoke from the rifle, I feel the bullet go deep in my chest.
From out of nowhere, Felina has found me, Kissing my cheek as she kneels by my side.
Cradled by two loving arms that I'll die for, One little kiss and Felina goodbye.

Walking in Jerusalem just like John (goodnight, goodnight)
 I would never ride, well, I would never ride (goodnight, goodnight)
 But His rod and His staff, they comfort me (goodnight, goodnight)
 Tell "A" for the ark, that wonderful boat (goodnight, goodnight)
 Tell "B" for the beast at the ending of the wood (goodnight,goodnight)
 You know it ate all the children when they wouldn't be good,

Chorus = 2x G C Am G F C Am

Verse 1

Born in Red Hook, Brooklyn, in the year of who knows when
Opened up his eyes to the tune of an accordion
Always on the outside of whatever side there was
When they asked him why it had to be that way,
"Well," he answered, "just because."

Verse 2

Larry was the oldest, Joey was next to last.
They called Joe "Crazy," the baby they called "Kid Blast."
Some say they lived off gambling and runnin' numbers too.
It always seemed they got caught between
The mob and the men in blue.

Chorus

Joey, Joey, King of the streets, child of clay.
Joey, Joey,
What made them want to come and blow you away?

Verse 3

There was talk they killed their rivals, but the truth was far from that
No one ever knew for sure where they were really at.
When they tried to strangle Larry, Joey almost hit the roof.
He went out that night to seek revenge,
Thinkin' he was bulletproof.

Verse 4

The war broke out at the break of dawn,
it emptied out the streets
Joey and his brothers suffered terrible defeats
Till they ventured out behind the lines and took five prisoners.
They stashed them away in a basement,
Called them amateurs.

Verse 5

The hostages were tremblin'
when they heard a man exclaim,
"Let's blow this place to kingdom come,
let Con Edison take the blame."
But Joey stepped up,
he raised his hand, said, "We're not those kind of men
It's peace and quiet that we need
To go back to work again."

Chorus

Verse 6

The police department hounded him, they called him Mr. Smith
They got him on conspiracy; they were never sure who with.
"What time is it?" said the judge to Joey when they met
"Five to ten," said Joey.
The judge says, "That's exactly what you get."

Verse 7

He did ten years in Attica,
reading Nietzsche and Wilhelm Reich
They threw him in the hole one time for tryin' to stop a strike.
His closest friends were black men
'cause they seemed to understand
What it's like to be in society, With a shackle on your hand.

Verse 8

When they let him out in '71 he'd lost a little weight
But he dressed like Jimmy Cagney and I swear he did look great.
He tried to find the way back into the life he left behind
To the boss he said, "I have returned
And now I want what's mine."

Chorus

Verse 9

It was true that in his later years he would not carry a gun
"I'm around too many children," he'd say,
"they should never know of one"
Yet he walked right into the clubhouse
of his lifelong deadly foe,
Emptied out the register, said, "Tell 'em it was Crazy Joe."

Verse 10

One day they blew him down in a clam bar in New York
He could see it comin' through the door
as he lifted up his fork.
He pushed the table over to protect his family
Then he staggered out into the streets Of Little Italy.

Chorus

Verse 11

Sister Jacqueline and Carmela
and mother Mary all did weep.
I heard his best friend Frankie say,
"He ain't dead, he's just asleep."
Then I saw the old man's limousine
head back towards the grave
I guess he had to say one last goodbye
To the son that he could not save

Verse 12

The sun turned cold over President Street and the town of Brooklyn mourned
They said a mass in the old church near the house where he was born.
And someday if God's in heaven overlooking His preserve
I know the men that shot him down
Will get what they deserve.

Verse 1

Deep down in Louisiana close to New Orleans,
Way back in the woods among the evergreens
There in an old cabin made of earth and wood
There lived a country boy named Johnny B. Goode
He never learned to read or write so well,
But he could play a guitar like ringin' a bell.

Chorus

Go-go, go Johnny go; go-go,
Go Johnny go; go-go, go Johnny go;
Go-go, go Johnny go, go; Go Johnny B. Goode.

Verse 2

He used to carry his guitar in a gunny sack,
Go sit up in the trees by the railroad track.
The engineers seen him sittin' in the shade
Strummin' to the rhythm that the drivers made.
People passin' by would stop and say
"My my, but that little country boy can play!"

Verse 1 Morning comes, she follows the path to the river shore.
Lightly sung, her song is the latch on the morning's door
See the sun sparkle in the reeds, silver beads, pass into the sea.
She comes from a town where they call her the woodcutter's daughter.
She's brown as the bank where she kneels down to gather her water,
She bears it away with a love that the river has taught her.
Let it flow, greatly grow, wide and clear.

Verse 2 Round and round, the cut of the plow in the furrowed field.
Seasons round, the bushels of corn and the barley meal
Broken ground, open and beckoning to the spring, Black dirt live again.

As he dances the circular track of the plow ever knowing
That the work of his day measures more than the planting and growing.

Payday's coming when my work is all done

Lead

Verse 3 Everybody's scrambling, running around
Picking up their money, tearing the teepee down

Verse 2

You've gone to the finest schools, alright, Miss Lovely,
But you know you only used to get juiced in it.
You never had to live out on the street,
But now you're gonna have to get used to it.
You used to ride on the chrome horse with your diplomat
Who carried on his shoulders a Siamese cat.
Ain't it hard when you discover that
He really wasn't where it's at
After he took from you everything he could steal.

Verse 3

You never turned around to see the frowns
On the jugglers and the clowns when they all did tricks for you.
Never understood that it ain't no good.
You shouldn't let other people get your kicks for you.
You said you'd never compromise
With the Mystery Tramp but now you realize
He's not selling any alibis
As you stare into the vacuum of his eyes
And he says, "Do you want to make a deal?"

Verse 4

Princess on the steeple and all the pretty people
They're all drinkin', thinkin' that they've got it made.
Exchanging all kinds of precious gifts,
You'd better lift your diamond ring, you'd better pawn it babe.
You used to be so amused
At Napoleon in rags and the language that he used
Go to him now he calls you you can't refuse
When you got nothin' you got nothin' to lose
Your invisible now you've got no secrets to conceal.

 Made a good run, but a little too slow
 They overtook me in Jericho

 Along came the sheriff from Thomasville
 Says "Young man, your name's Brown,
 Remember the night you blew Sadie down?"

 I murdered little Sadie in the first degree
 First degree and the second degree
 Got any papers won't you read 'em to me.

 Put me on the train and sent me back
 Sent me back to the county jail,
 I had nobody to go for my bail.

Ten years ago on a cold dark night
There was someone killed 'neath the town hall light.

Few there to see but they all agree
That the slayer who ran looked a lot like me.

The judge said, "Son what is your alibi?
If you were somewhere else you won't have to die."

I spoke not a word though it may mean my life.
I had been in the arms of my best friends wife.

Laid back in an old saloon, with a peso in my hand,
Watchin' flies and children on the street,
I catch a glimpse of black-eyed girls who giggle when I smile,
There's a little boy who wants to shine my feet.
And it's three days ride from Bakersfield and I don't know why I came.
I guess I came to keep from payin' dues.
So instead I've got a bottle and a girl who's just fourteen,
And a damn good case of the Mexicali Blues. Yeh!

Verse 2 She said her name was Billy Jean and she was fresh in town.
I didn't know a stage line ran from Hell.
She had raven hair, a ruffled dress, a necklace made of gold,
All the french perfume you'd care to smell.
She took me up into her room and whispered in my ear,
"Go on, my friend, do anything you choose."
Now I'm payin' for those happy hours I spent there in her arms,
With a lifetime's worth of the Mexicali Blues, yeh.

Verse 3 And then a man rode into town, some thought he was the law.
Billy Jean was waitin' when he came.
She told me he would take her, if I didn't use my gun,
I'd have no one but myself to blame.
I went down to those dusty streets, blood was on my mind.
I guess that stranger hadn't heard the news
Cause I shot first and killed him, Lord, he didn't even draw
And he made me trade the gallows for the Mexicali Blues.

Verse 1 || : G /// | Em /// : || G /// | A /// | G / Bm / | Em / / / | % |

Me and my uncle went ridin' down,
South Colorado, West Texas bound.
We stopped over in Santa Fe,
That bein' the point just about half way,
And you know it was the hottest part of the day.

Verse 2 I took the horses up to the stall,
Went to the barroom, ordered drinks for all.
Three days in the saddle, you know my body hurt,
It being summer, I took off my shirt.
And I tried to wash off some of that dusty dirt.

Verse 3 West Texas cowboys, they's all around.
Women, liquor and money, they loaded down.
Soon after payday know it seemed a shame;
You know my uncle he starts a friendly game.
And it's high-low jack and the winner take the hand.

Lead

Verse 4 My uncle starts winning; cowboys got sore.
One of them called him, and then two more,
Accused him of cheating; Oh no, it couldn't be.
I know my uncle, he's as honest as me,
And I'm as honest as a Denver man can be.

Verse 5 One of them cowboys, he starts to draw,
I shot him down, Lord he never saw.
Shot me another, oh damn he won't grow old.
In the confusion, my uncle grabbed the gold,
And we high-tailed it down to Mexico.

Verse 6 I love those cowboys, I love their gold,
I loved my uncle, God rest his soul,
Taught me good, Lord, taught me all I know.
Taught me so well, I grabbed that gold
And I left his dead ass there by the side of the road.

Oh, Mama can this really be the end? To be stuck inside a mobile with the Memphis blues again.

Verse 7

Now the rainman gave me two cures, then said "Jump right in."

The one was Texas medicine, the other was just railroad gin

Monkey and the Engineer

| G / / / | C / G / | G / A / | D / G / : ||

Verse 1 Once upon a time there was an engineer.
Drove a locomotive both far and near.
Accompanied by a monkey that would sit on a stool,
Watching everything the engineer would do

Verse 2 One day the engineer wanted a bite to eat,
He left the monkey sitting on the driver's seat,
The monkey pulled the throttle, the locomotive jumped the gun
And did 80 miles an hour down the mainline run.

Chorus Big locomotive right on time, big locomotive coming down the line.
Big locomotive Number 99, left the engineer with a worried mind.

Verse 3 The engineer called up the dispatcher on the phone,
To tell him all about his locomotive was gone.
Dispatcher got on the wire, switch operator to the right,
Cause the monkey's got the main line sewed up tight.

Verse 4 The switch operator got the message on time,
Said there's a Northbound livin' on the same main line,
Open up the switch I'm gonna let him through the hole,
Cause the monkey's got the locomotive under control.

Old men sing about their dreams, women laugh and children scream,
And the band keeps playin' on.

Blues in E with "This dark has go to give" = | G / D / | A / / / |

Verse 1 Please don't dominate the rap, Jack, If you've got nothing new to say.
If you please, don't back up the track this train's got to run today.
I spent a little time on the mountain, I spent a little time on the hill
I heard someone say "Better run away". Others say "better stand still".
Now I don't know, but I been told It's hard to run with the weight of gold,
Other hand I have heard it said, It's just as hard with the weight of lead.
One way or another, one way or another, one way or another,
This dark has got to give.

Verse 2 Who can deny, who can deny, It's not just a change in style?
One step down and another begun and I wonder how many miles.
I spent a little time on the mountain, I spent a little time on the hill
Things went down we don't understand, but I think in time we will.
Now, I don't know but I was told In the heat of the sun a man died of cold.
Keep on coming or stand and wait, with the sun so dark and the hour so late.
One way or another, one way or another, one way or another,
This dark has got to give.

Verse 3 You can't overlook the lack, Jack, of any other highway to ride.
It's got no signs or dividing lines and very few rule to guide.
I spent a little time on the mountain, I spent a little time on the hill
I saw things getting out of hand, I guess they always will.
I don't know but I been told If the horse don't pull you got to carry the load.
I don't know whose back's that strong, maybe find out before too long.
One way or another, one way or another, One way or another,
This dark got to give.

- V1 You got a lotta nerve to say you are my friend
 When I was down you just stood there grinning
 You got a lotta nerve to say you got a helping hand to lend
 You just want to be on the side that's winning.
- V2 You say I let you down you know it's not like that
 If you're so hurt why then don't you show it
 You say you lost your faith but that's not where it's at
 You had no faith to lose and you know it.
- V3 I know the reason that you talk behind my back
 I used to be among the crowd you're in with
 Do you take me for such a fool to think I'd make contact
 With the one who tries to hide what he don't know to begin with.
- V4 You see me on the street you always act surprised
 You say, "How are you?" "Good luck" but you don't mean it
 When you know as well as me you'd rather see me paralyzed
 Why don't you just come out once and scream it?
- V5 No, I do not feel that good when I see the heartbreaks you embrace
 If I was a master thief perhaps I'd rob them
 And now I know you're dissatisfied with your position and your place
 Don't you understand it's not my problem?
- V6 I wish that for just one time you could stand inside my shoes
 And just for that one moment I could be you
 Yes, I wish that for just one time you could stand inside my shoes
 You'd know what a drag it is to see you.

Like my heart's got a big break.
And a stab of loneliness sharp and painful
That I may never shake.
You might think that I'm taking it hard
Since you broke me off with a call.
You might wager that I'll hide in sorrow and
I might lay right down and bawl.

Chorus

Now the race is on and here comes pride up the back stretch.
Heartaches a goin' to the inside,
My tears are holding back, tryin' not to fall.
My heart's our of the running
True love scratched for another's sake.
The race is on and it looks like heartaches
And the winner loses all.

Verse 2

One day I ventured in love never once suspecting
What the final result would be.
Now I live in fear of wakin up each morning and Finding that you're gone from me
There's an aching pain in my heart for the name
Of the one that I hated to face.
Someone else came out to win her
And I came out in second place.

Verse 1 | B^b /// | F / E^b / | E^b#o /// | B^b /// || D / | E^b // Dm | Cm /// | F /// |

Went to see the captain, strangest I could find,
Laid my proposition down, laid it on the line.

I won't slave for beggar's pay, likewise gold and jewels,
But I would slave to learn the way to sink your ship of fools.

Chorus | F /// | // E^b / | B^b /// | % | % | F /// | // E^b / | Gm /// | % | % |

Ship of fools on a cruel sea, ship of fools sail away from me

| Gm /// | % | % | % | E^b#o /// | % | Cm /// | F / E^b / | B^b /// | % |

It was later than I thought when I first believed you,
Now I cannot share your laughter, ship of fools.

Verse 2 Saw your first ship sink and drown, from rockin' of the boat,
And all that could not sink or swim was just left there to float.
I won't leave you drifting down, but woh it makes me wild,
With thirty years upon my head to have you call me child.

Simple Twist Of Fate

They sat together in the park as the evening sky grew dark
She looked at him and he felt a spark tingle to his bones
Twas then he felt alone and wished that he'd gone straight
And watched out for a simple twist of fate

Verse 2 They walked along by the old canal a little confused, I remember well
And checked into a cheap hotel with a neon burnin' bright
He felt the heat of the night hit him like a freight train
Moving with a simple twist of fate

Lead

Verse 3 A saxophone someplace far off played As she was walkin' by the arcade
As the light bust through a beat-up shade where he was wakin' up
She dropped a coin into the cup of the blind man at the gate
And forgot about a simple twist of fate

Verse 4 He woke up, the room was bare, he didn't see her anywhere
He told himself he didn't care, pushed the window open wide
Felt an emptiness inside to which he just could not relate
Brought on by a simple twist of fate

Lead

Verse 5 He hears the ticking of the clock walks along with a parrot that talks
Hunts her down by the waterfront docks where the sailors all come in
Maybe she'll pick him out again, how long must he wait
Once more for a simple twist of fate

Verse 6 People tell me it's a sin to know and feel too much within
I still believe she was my twin, but I lost the ring
She was born in the spring, but I was born too late
Blame it on a simple twist of fate
Blame it on a simple twist of fate
Blame it on a simple twist of fate

Sometimes I feel so low-down and disgusted
Can't help but wonder what's happenin' to my companion
Are they lost or are they found,

All their earthly principles They're gonna have to abandon?

You could die down here, Be just another accident statistic."

Tangled Up In Blue

Verse 1 = ||: A / G / | A / G / | A / G / | D / D^{sus4} D : ||

Early one mornin' the sun was shinin', I was layin' in bed, Wond'rin if she'd changed at all if her hair was still red
Her folks they said our lives together sure was gonna be rough,
Never did like Mama's homemade dress Papa's bankbook wasn't big enough

| E / F[#] m / | A / D / | E / F[#] m / | A / D / | E / / / | G / D / | A / A^{sus4} / |

I was standin' on the side of the road rain fallin' on my shoes
Heading out for the East Coast Lord knows I've paid some dues gettin' through. Tangled up in blue.

Verse 2

She was married when we first met soon to be divorced
I helped her out of a jam, I guess, but I used a little too much force
We drove that car as far as we could abandoned it out West
Split up on docks that night night both agreeing it was best, She turned around to look at me as I was walkin' away
I heard her say over my shoulder, We'll meet again someday on the avenue, Tangled up in blue.

Verse 3

I had a job in the great north woods working as a cook for a spell
But I never did like it all that much and one day the axe just fell
So I drifted down to New Orleans where I was lucky to be employed,
Workin' for a while on a fishin' boat right outside of Del-a-Croix,
But all the while I was alone the past was close behind
I seen a lot of women, but she never escaped my mind, and I just grew, Tangled up in blue.

Verse 4

She was workin' in a topless place and I stopped in for a beer
I just kept lookin' at the side of her face in the spotlight so clear
And later on as the crowd thinned out I's just about to do the same
She was standing there in back of my chair, said to me, "Don't you know my name?"
I muttered somethin' under my breath She studied the lines on my face,
Must admit I felt a little uneasy when she bent down to tie the laces of my shoe, Tangled up in blue.

Verse 5

She lit a burner on the stove and offered me a pipe,
"I thought you'd never say hello", she said "You look like the silent type."
Then she opened up a book of poems and handed it to me, Written by an Italian poet from the thirteenth century
And every one of them words rang true and glowed like burnin' coal
Pourin' off of every page like it was written in my soul From me to you, Tangled up in blue.

Verse 6

I lived with them on Montague Street in a basement down the stairs
There was music in the cafes at night and revolution in the air
He started into dealing with slaves and something inside him died
She had to sell everything she owned and froze up inside. And when finally the bottom fell out I became withdrawn
The only thing I knew how to do was to keep on keepin' on Like a bird that flew, Tangled up in blue.

Verse 7

Now I'm goin' back again I got to get her to somehow, All the people we used to know they're an illusion to me now
Some are mathematicians some are carpenter's wives
Don't know how it all got started, I don't know what they're doin' with their lives
But me, I'm still on the road headin' for another joint
We always did feel the same we just saw it from another point of view. Tangled up in blue.

V2 Shadows of a sailor forming, winds both foul and fair all swarm. Down in Carlisle he loved a lady many years ago.

Verse 1

Ain't it just like the night to play tricks when you're tryin' to be so quiet?
We sit here stranded, though we're all doin' our best to deny it.
And Louise holds a handful of rain temptin' you to defy it.
Lights flicker from the opposite loft, in this room the heat pipes just cough,
The country music station plays soft, but there's nothing, really nothing, to turn off.
Just Louise and her lovers they are so entwined,
And these Visions of Johanna that conquer my mind.

Verse 2

In the empty lot where the ladies play blindman's bluff with a key chain.
And all-night girls they whisper of escapades out on the "D" train.
We can hear the night watchman click his flashlight, ask himself if it's him or them that's really insane
But Louise she's alright, she's just near. She's delicate and she seems like the mirror,
But she just makes it all too concise and too clear, That Johanna's not here.
The Ghost of electricity howls in the bones of her face.
Where these Visions of Johanna have now taken my place.

Verse 3

Little boy lost, he takes himself so seriously. He brags of his misery, he likes to live dangerously,
And when bringing her name up he speaks of her farewell kiss to me.
He's sure got alot of gall, to be so useless and all, muttering small talk at the wall, while I'm in the hall.
Oh, how can I explain? It's so hard to get on.
And these Visions of Johanna they kept me up past the dawn

Verse 4

Inside the museums Infinity goes up on trial. Voices echo this is what salvation must be like after a while.
But even Mona Lisa must have had the highway blues, you can tell by the way she smiles.
See the primitive wallflower freeze, when the jelly-faced women all sneeze,
Hear the one with the mustache say, "Jeeze, I can't find my knees."
Jewels and binoculars hang from the head of the mule, but the Visions of Johanna they make it all seem so cruel.

Verse 5

The peddler now speaks to the Countess who's pretending to care for him.
Saying, "Name me someone that's not a parasite and I'll go out and say a prayer for him."
But like Louise always says, "Ya can't look at much can ya man?"
As she, herself prepares for him and Madonna she still has not showed, we see this empty cage now corrode
Where her cape of the stage once had flowed, the fiddler, he now steps to the road,
He writes everything's been returned which was owed, on the back of the fish truck that loads,
While my conscience explodes.
The harmonicas play the skeleton key and the rain,
And these Visions of Johanna are now all that remain.
